CREST OF THE KANSAS FLOOD WATERS PASS

Last Of Foreigners Are Released By Bandit Gang

AMERICANS FREED BY OUTLAW BAND

Tense Situation Over China's Foreign Status Relieved

EIGHT CAPTIVES GET FREEDOM

Bandits Are Mustered Into National Army By Government

(By Associated Press.)
TSAOCHWANG, June 12.—The last of the foreigners, eight in number, held captive by Chinese bandits, were released today. They have been held at the Pootsuku stronghold of the outlaws since they were taken from the Shanghai-Pekin express train near Suichow on May 6.
They include Major Roland W. Finger, U. S. A. Ordnance Department, Manila, home at Berkeley, Calif.; Leon Friedman, Brevett Hotel, Chicago, owner of the China Motors Corporation, Shanghai; John B. Powell, Hannibal, Mo., publisher of the weekly review of Shanghai; Lee Solomon, San Francisco, Shanghai agent of the Noh company of San Francisco.
News of the release promised to relieve the tense atmosphere enveloping China's foreign relations since May

The score or more of foreigners first taken into the hills diminished regularly as the bandits released them one or two at a time until only eight were held. These were hostages retained until the Chinese government would have fulfilled the last of the outlaws' demands.

The bandits did not ask for money at their principal condition was that they were enrolled in the regular army. The representatives of the Pekin government began mustering in the bandits more than a week ago.

While the diplomatic corps did not interfere with the measures taken by the Pekin government, it stood ready to help and sent to Tsaochwang an international commission headed by Brigadier General W. D. Connor, U. S. A., to investigate all phases of banditry in the Shanghai province. The commission is still on the ground. Roy Anderson, an American with long experience in Chinese affairs, was the principal intermediary between the bandits and the Chinese government, although his capacity was official and he was trusted implicitly by both sides, and guaranteed to the bandits that the Chinese government would carry out its promises.

A large number of Chinese captives remained on Pootsuku mountain latest advices. Negotiations for their release, however, were proceeding.

Danville Hasn't Had Much Rain

M. G. Vest, a traveling salesman of the Pointer-Harlow Wholesale Company, stated this morning that in his visits to all parts of Morgan County he had found rains had kept the farmers back, except at Danville, in the western part of the county—one of the oldest and most prosperous neighborhoods in the county. Mr. Vest said there had been comparatively little rain at Danville, and that the farmers had much seed in the ground and that they were up with their work and were in a cheerful frame of mind.

Legion Will Meet At Linger Longer

On Wednesday evening at Linger Longer Lodge, the Morgan County chapter of the American Legion will hold business meeting made up entirely of members of the Legion.
A stew will be served and the main business discussed except routine work, will be plans for the July 4 celebration. Major Moorman of Birmingham is expected to attend the meeting.

Love Leads Them a Merry Chase

David Carnegie and Miss Jessica Brown.

David Carnegie, Earl of Northesk, Eng., and Miss Jessica Brown, former "Follies" dancer, of Buffalo, N. Y., have learned for themselves the truth of the old saw that true love never runs smoothly. The Earl came to the United States to wed the winsome Jessica, whom he had met and with whom he had fallen in love during her London appearance but the couple was denied license by an abstruse bureau clerk in New York on the ground that there was some doubt as to the legality of Jessica's divorce from her first husband, Cyril DeWitt Reinhard in Illinois. Then Cyril appeared on the scene with the declaration that Jessica was "not yet through with him," and threatened action. The divorce he said, was not legal. The Earl and Jessica will go to Canada, they say, to be married.

Government Speed Boat Captures Rich Liquor Prize, Taking Booze and Launch

(By Associated Press.)
DETROIT, June 12.—A boat of the "dry navy" limped into port late yesterday taking on water through leaks in bow and stern, but none-the-less the victor in her first clash with the "mosquito fleet" of the Detroit rum runners.
It was the government speed boat P-103 with a rum launch containing 100 cases and 20 kegs of beer in tow, that battered her way through ten rum speed boats that harassed her, snatched at her liquor prize and attempted to sink her until G. A. Van Dusen, in the government boat, sent them scurrying to cover with several shots from his revolver. The rum laden launch had made a dash from Fighting Island, in Canadian waters, to "Hogan's Alley," a favorite American terminal for contraband liquor.
The rum boat beat the P-103 to the shore, but her skipper did not have time to tie it to the dock before the P-103 was alongside. The rum boat skipper escaped.
Van Dusen had taken the launch in tow and was starting up the river with it when the "mosquito fleet" appeared. The rum boats swarmed on every side.
The speedier craft of the attacking fleet were dashed straight at the P-103 and then would skid, nearly upsetting both boats.
A long grey rum boat, faster than the others, pursued these harassing tactics for a while, then becoming bolder, dashed straight into the P-103, ramming her full astern and opening a seam in the dry boat. The grey craft returned to the attack a moment later, ramming the P-103 head on, jamming the metal bow of the government boat and splitting a plank forward, just above the water line.
This was Van Dusen's cue. He drew his revolver and fired through the grey craft, whereupon the skipper fled, followed by the rum running armada.
Plainly showing the marks of battle and partly awash from leaks resulting from the encounter, the P-103 reached the federal docks, her prize, the seized rum runner, abreast.

PROHI CONFERENCE POSTPONED AGAIN

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 12.—Postponement of the proposed conference of state governors on prohibition enforcement, until after President Harding returns from his western trip was announced at the white house today.
Meeting of several state legislatures and the unsettled question of using the army and navy in enforcing prohibition were said by officials to be factors causing the postponement. The decision, it was said, was not to be interpreted as meaning the conference would not be held later, nor that the fullest cooperation, aid and advice of state executives in enforcing the prohibition laws would not be sought.

PRESIDENT MAY ASK CHANGE IN DRY LAW

Liquor On The Foreign Ships Is Greatest Trouble-Maker

EXECUTIVE STILL TO ENFORCE LAW

Amendment Of The Act Only Way Out Think Many At Capital

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 12.—There were increased indications in high official circles here today that President Harding might ask Congress, when it assembles, to modify the prohibition law as it affects the carrying of liquor on board foreign vessels in American waters.

The President was said to believe that Congress never intended the government to be confronted with the situation it is called upon to meet by the objection of foreign powers in regard to the vigorous ship liquor ban.

In the present circumstances, it was added, Mr. Harding sees no possible course open to him but to enforce to the letter the Volstead act as it recently was interpreted by the supreme court.

He believes that no executive regulation he could issue could properly modify application of the court's opinion and that only an act of Congress would be sufficient.

PLANS PERFECTED FOR JOINT MEETING

A joint meeting of representatives of the Morgan Kiwanis Club and the Albany-Decatur Chamber of Commerce was held last night at the Colonial building, when plans for the meeting at the Cooper-Wells Hosiery Mill on Second Avenue Thursday evening were discussed at length and some definite plans were agreed upon.
A full program of what is to be done Thursday night will be given out later, it was announced this morning.

Already tickets have been put on sale for the "Governor's Banquet," at a number of drug stores in the Twin Cities, where first come first served, is the rule, including first members of the Chamber of Commerce and of the Kiwanis Club.

It was felt to be right and proper to allow the membership of the two organizations that planned for the coming of the Governor and of Mr. Patterson, to have the refusal of an opportunity to attend the banquet and speaking, but none are to be discriminated against, after the requirements of the membership of the two civic organizations have been met.

One big attraction of the meeting Thursday night outside of the speeches and the dinner will be the first appearance of the Albany-Decatur concert band. It was stated at the meeting of those planning for the Thursday night meeting that the band would surely be on hand at the hosiery mill and to furnish the music.

Full arrangements are being made to seat the company and it is estimated that around 250 can be seated at the banquet table.

Thirteen Killed As Island Laid Waste

(By Associated Press.)
MANILA, June 12.—Thirteen lives were lost and a large area was laid waste by a typhoon on the island of Samar, according to telegrams received today from constabulary headquarters there. The reports said that in seven towns, 95 per cent of the houses were blown down that the homeless thousands were threatened with famine.

STATE CHAMBER TO ADVERTISE STATE

Local Civic Body Was Represented At The Birmingham Meet

RANDOLPH MAN IS THE CHAIRMAN

Morgan County To Be Represented On Official Board

The Alabama-Decatur Chamber of Commerce was represented at the Birmingham meeting of civic bodies interested in advertising Alabama and on her return reported an enthusiastic meeting.

"The thing that struck me forcibly," said Miss Speake, "was that the gathering was representative. There were people there from all over the state and seven railroads were represented."

"Almost every county was represented. We met in the auditorium of the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce. There must have been two or three hundred representatives."

"Governor Brandon was there and made a speech as did A. G. Patterson of this county."

"Dr. Abercrombie of the state educational system was present and nearly, if not all the state departments had representatives."

"It will be of special interest to Morgan County people to know that this county is to have a representative on the board charged with the responsibility of advertising the state. Mr. Overton of Randolph County, was elected chairman, and he called on several speakers after making a short speech, himself."

"Mr. Overton said the organization was to be non-political non-sectarian and non-sectional. J. D. Moore, president of the Birmingham chamber of commerce, welcomed the delegates and said the advertisements would speak in terms of Alabama not for Birmingham, Mobile, Montgomery, Tuscaloosa, Muscle Shoals or the Tennessee Valley."

Governor Brandon followed Mr. Moore and when he arose the governor received an ovation. Gov. Brandon pledged his active support to the campaign to advertise Alabama, and that during his term of office he hoped to see all Alabamians yoked together and that all would pull like a patient team of oxen, but faster.

The note most stressed by the governor was cooperation. "Let us all get together and build up each community," said the governor. "It is easy to pull down but better to cooperate. Cooperation will drive ignorance and superstition from out of our borders."

O. L. Bunn, chairman of the executive committee of the organization formed, which is to be called "Greater Alabama, Incorporated," outlined the plan of organization as follows:

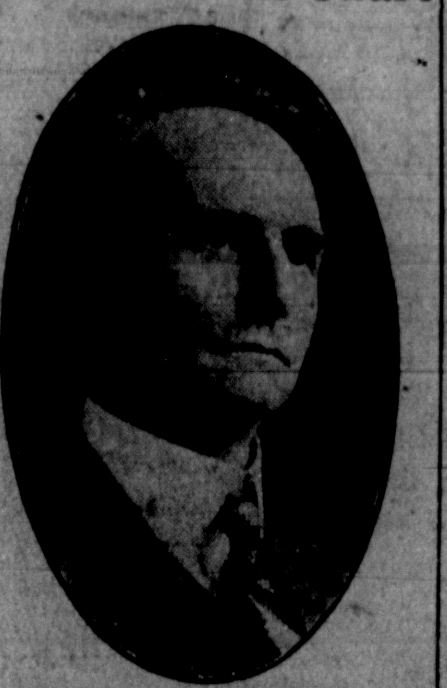

First, an executive committee to be composed of seven secretaries of the chambers of commerce of the state, which is to be the head of the entire organization.
Second every county in the state is to appoint a chairman for the county, and the 67 county chairmen will constitute an advisory committee to the executive committee.

"Each county chairman is expected (continued on page 2)

Local Masons Back From Shrine Meet

All local Masons and their families who attended the national Shrine convention in Washington, with the exception of J. T. Rainey and E. W. Strother have returned, the majority of the company coming in Sunday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander arrived Saturday. D. C. Adams and T. A. Bowles stated they had had the time of their lives at the national capital and had never seen such well behaved crowds.

Rev. S. D. Monroe Draws Fine Chart

Rev. S. D. Monroe

"Ten steps to heaven or hell," is the title of a comprehensive chart made after years of patient labor by Rev. S. D. Monroe, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Albany.

The chart represents two stairways, one leading to the lower regions, the other to heaven.

On each step appears a scripture reference having to do with the particular sin or virtue named on the step.

A number of pictures appear on the chart showing the home, the church and the school as constructive agencies and the saloon, the gaming house and the brothel as places of destruction.

Rev. Monroe has been complimented on the chart by such men as Captain Richmond P. Hobson and Dr. Steele, the well known Sunday School worker, said of the chart: "It ought to be in every Sunday School classroom, in every Y. M. C. A. and in every home in the world."

ROADS DISCUSSED BY REVENUE BOARD

The monthly meeting of the Morgan County Board of Revenue is in progress at the court house with Judge L. P. Troup, the chairman, presiding.

S. K. Jones of the road building firm of S. K. Jones and Company of Memphis as spokesman for all the road building contractors of the county, asked for aid of the Board of Revenue in preventing teams and cars from using those portions of the new roads now nearing completion.

Mr. Jones charged that it was next to impossible to finish a road as it should be unless drivers stay off until the road has settled.

It was shown the law now required that detour roads shall be used when building contractors require it and where they provide detour roads and that the law provides a penalty against any who persist in using unfinished main lines when requested to do so by road contractors.

The board of revenue went on record as being in hearty sympathy with the request of Mr. Jones as representing the road building contractors, and some members of the board expressed resentment at teamsters and drivers of other vehicles who would not cooperate with those now trying to give Morgan County a modern public highway system.

The question was raised before the board this morning as to whether there would be any opening of the registration books this summer, and when it was shown there were to be no elections until after next January, the month the registration books open regularly, it was decided that it would be a useless expense to the tax payers to have the registration books opened this summer.

A number of road contractors appeared before the board in addition to Mr. Jones about other matters of a routine character.

ARKANSAS CITY NOW UNDER MARTIAL LAW

Property Damage Over Two States Reaches Several Million

THIRTEEN LIVES ARE SNUFFED OUT

American Legion Men Patrol Streets Of Winfield, Kan.

(By Associated Press.)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 12.—The crest of the flood waters that for four days have covered the eastern half of Kansas and North Dakota had virtually passed today, leaving a toll of seven dead, many missing and property damage aggregating several million dollars.

Thousands of persons made homeless when the flood swept through their homes were being cared for today by public building departments and in private homes.

Railroad service to several cities in Kansas was demoralized and at least two cities were virtually cut off from communication.

Washouts on virtually all lines in this region were reported.

Arkansas City, hardest hit, was under military control today. What still remained upon the streets were victims who were well under way. Five persons were reported to be found for but these were expected to be found when the many people marooned by the high water were rescued.

The estimated damage in Kansas, 000.

Conditions at Wichita, Kan., where four square miles of the city was flooded to a depth of three feet, were improving rapidly.

Property damage there was estimated at more than $1,000,000. Reports from Winfield, Kan., estimated damage there at between $1,000,000 and $1,500,000. Many were homeless and American Legion members were patrolling the city.

Damage said to reach $2,000,000 was caused in Kay County, Okla.

Six feet of water flowed down the main business street of Kew, Okla., yesterday, while citizens huddled on a hill south of town.

Train service through Oklahoma was in a demoralized condition as a result of washouts and trucks in the north and west part of the state are in bad shape.

Austin Nichols Is Called By Death

Funeral services for the late Austin Nichols will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the family residence on Fifteenth Avenue, East, Albany.

Mr. Nichols is survived by a wife and two children. Until a few days ago he was able to perform his duties at the Louisville & Nashville shops where he was employed, and his death came as a surprise. Mr. Nichols had been suffering from malaria poisoning, friends stated.

Another Pension Boost Possible

The Raphael Semmes Camp No. 11 U. C. V., of Mobile, through its pension committee, has out a circular letter, one of which was received here by Veteran James Johnson of West Albany.

The letter called attention to the bill of the Confederate Veterans now before the state general assembly, which if passed will increase the pension now being received to one dollar per day.

Full data explaining the position of the veterans was sent Mr. Johnson as the Adjutant of the local organization of Confederate Veterans.

THINK AND PLAN AGAINST AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS.

The casualty list from automobile accidents grows. The number who lay down their lives weekly in this country in connection with auto wrecks is entirely too large. In one Southern state alone the average number of deaths for the month of May is placed at 13, more than one death for every three days. The same state is credited with 11 serious injuries and 14 minor injuries during the month of May.

Attention to the different kinds of accidents may tend to a clearer realization of the dangers and hence reduce the number of automobile accidents. Most auto accidents come about from collisions of cars, collisions of cars with other vehicles, car hitting a tree or a post, going over an embankment, running down pedestrians in the streets, car running into ditches, cars caught by railroad trains while attempting to "beat the engine," dim headlights, sleepy or careless drivers, and failure to heed the traffic ordinances, especially regarding the speeds allowed on the business streets.

By taking thought early almost all accidents may be prevented.

GIVE IRISH POTATOES A TRIAL WHEN BOLL WEEVILS INVADE.

In view of the continued rains and the probability that the boll weevil will make serious inroads on the little cotton that can be planted in this section this year, there comes the statement of county demonstration agents that it is possible to raise a late crop of Irish potatoes in Alabama and Georgia that will be of as much value as the cotton crop that has been raised in recent years without using as much land, allowing this land to rest for next year.

That is a significant statement and is doubly of interest here in view of the efforts that are being made to get farmers to raise enough late vegetables to take care of themselves and others.

One man here raised 100 bushels to an acre which he sold for $1.25 a hundred pound sack and is now selling a few for seed at $1.50.

Fortunately the land that is least useful because of boll weevils can be used to raise potatoes.

Many Alabama counties are bidding for new industries—especially textile mills. Free sites are being offered in many instances, and there is little doubt that many new mills will be attracted to the state. The same condition prevails in almost all southern states and it now seems that the manufacturers have realized that it is best to bring mills to the cotton fields. The South offers advantages in climate, in labor and in exceptional fuel supply, including both hydro-electric power and coal.—Southern Opportunities Magazine.

Salamanders are the latest pets. Not the kind the popular writer put in his novel a few years ago but the real thing, gorgeous flame-colored little lizards, says a New York newspaper. Just when one begins to think there is nothing new in society along comes this picturesque fad. The salamander comes from Northern Africa and is brilliant orange and black. They are supposed to be able to survive a fire but this is doubtful. Anyhow New York ingenues, the successors of the flappers, are cuddling salamanders against their throats and talking baby talk to them.

The Republican leaders just love Governor Smith because he has given them an issue on which they may win again in 1924.

PREVENTION FOR MEASLES

BY H. C. McREE, M. D.

There is only one way to get measles, and that is for a person who has not had it to come into close contact or in the presence of some one suffering an attack.

Then, the way to prevent it, is not to do that act and the health department is doing its part to warn you in a way that you won't have to be obeying all calls and putting a card up by the side of the front door.

The card says: "Warning, Measles." We can't do this unless we are notified by some one, the attending physician will if you call one, but frequently none is called and the existence of cases is concealed. This should not be for the above reason and a better one, so far as those guilty are concerned, you might be the cause of a death in your neighbor's family.

We are ready, willing and anxious to obey these calls and thus do our bit toward such a good cause.

Torturing Witnesses.

The ancient Greeks permitted the torture of witnesses, provided they were not citizens. The Romans permitted the torture of slaves to compel confession. The Inquisition was no respecter of persons or age.

ALL WORN OUT

Does morning find you with a lame, stiff and aching back? Are you tired all the time—find work a burden? Have you suspected your kidneys? Albany people endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor? You can rely on their statements.

Mrs. I. A. Vernon, 402 Fourth Ave., W., Albany, says: "I can highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills from experience. Mornings I felt just as tired as when I had gone to bed and I was weak and aching all through my back. Just a little housework tired me completely and at times, I became dizzy I staggered and had to sit down until the spell passed. My kidneys acted sluggishly and I went to the Prentiss-Dillehay Drug Co. and got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's cured me of all the suffering and I have had no recurrence of the trouble."

State Chamber To Advertise State

to perfect an organization which is to cooperate with the state organization officers.

According to the California plan every part of the state is to be treated without discrimination. Every farmer, professional man, or industry that comes to the state is to be advised as to where the best opening exists, and where their requirements can be best met.

Every county in the state will be expected to appropriate a certain sum of money for the support of the "Greater Alabama" organization, the amount to be announced later. The state also will be asked for an appropriation as will all public utilities and the larger manufacturing plants, all money to go into one central fund.

The first work of the new organization will be to make an economic survey of the state so as to be able to advertise each section to the best advantage.

MY VACATION

WHERE, WHEN, AND HOW

A. D. Cohen stated that already Mrs. Cohen had gone on her vacation to Macon, Ga., but that both he and Mrs. Cohen would go to New York City and to Atlantic City the latter part of this month.

"We will spend most of our time in the city of New York," stated Mr. Cohen, "as we are acquainted with more people there than in Atlantic City."

"We expect to be gone about 90 days and will spend the last week or so at Atlantic City."

"It's little old New York for me," said Mr. Cohen, as he turned to his merchandise.

TAKE ME HOME

Take me back to old Kentucky.

Where the crystal waters glint

As they dance along their borders

Through the fragrant beds of mint.

Where the lasses and the horses

Are but terms of grace and speed.

And the whiskey and the station

Both are noted for their "bead."

Take me back to old Kentucky.

Where strong waters flow so free;

Where they cool off in summer

'Neath the spreading 'jupit tree

Where the highballs and the "low-

balls"

Always hit the center square,

And you never have next morning

Rheumatism in your hair.

Take me back to old Kentucky.

To the state where I was born,

Where the corn is full of kernels

And the colonels full of corn.

Where to disapprove the beverage

Is to toy with sudden death.

And they have a bonded warehouse

Just to bottle up their breath.

Take me back to old Kentucky.

Where the blue grass decks the hills

And they have no use for water

Save for operating stills;

For they scorn it as a beverage

On that dark and bloody ground.

As they claim that, since the deluge

It has taste of sinners' drowned.

Take me back to old Kentucky

Let me hear the pistols pop,

See the pigs and politicians

With their anouits eye-deep in slop

Take me back to those blue mountains

Where they argue points with lead;

But you needn't rush the matter—

Take me back when I am dead.

Tidwell Sounds Optimistic Note

In speaking today of the gloom felt by many on account of the wet weather, as affecting the farmer, F. F. Tidwell, the prominent supply merchant, said: "It has ever been the same way. When it is rainy, we are sure it will be too wet all summer, but it never is. I believe further that the boll weevil will not totally destroy the cotton crop, and besides that the farmers will find plenty of help to cultivate and gather their crops. And there will be enough cotton and other products to keep the country prosperous."

COLLEGE TEAM ARRIVES HERE

Four ambitious, wide-awake young men, interested enough in their future to work for their college tuition, arrived in Huntsville yesterday. They will call on you during the week for the purpose of obtaining your subscription to the Pictorial Review, a magazine which paid last year, tuition and expenses at college for over 400 young men. Each man must obtain a list of 500 names within a period of 11 weeks of people who will subscribe for the periodical.

"You assume no risk in opening the door wide when one of them rings and it will do no harm to greet them with a smile even if you don't care to subscribe. They are just as human as the rest of us and are having a pretty tough road in order to gain an education."

The boys are: Jack Welch, Auburn college; Theodore Johnson, W. G. McKibben and Elliott Lyons who have just graduated from Dinkins Training School at Selma, Ala. These young men are working for tuition and expenses at Auburn College. Huntsville Times.

These young men are now making a canvass here.

PHYSICIAN SURPRISED.

"Hearing of some good results from the use of May's Wonderful Remedy I decided to try it on a chronic case of indigestion and gastritis I was interested in. After the first dose the patient was relieved of gas troubles and was soon able to eat radishes and many things he had not eaten in years." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. UNION REVIVAL IS PLANNED FOR FALL

By a practically unanimous vote at its meeting this morning the Pastors Union of Morgan County, which organization is composed largely of ministers of the Twin Cities, Anstville and Fairview, decided on a union evangelistic meeting to be held the latter part of this summer or early in September at a place convenient to all concerned.

The pastors met in extra sessions to decide for or against a joint meeting at 10 o'clock Monday on the lawn of the Y. M. C. A. with Dr. G. T. Harris, the president, in the chairs. After prayer Dr. Harris asked Dr. W. P. Reeves to read a communication, which proved to be from the secretary of the Hamm and Ramsey, noted evangelists. The letter was addressed to Dr. W. P. Wilks, as the writer did not know of that minister's removal to Texas.

The Pastors Union was asked to say "yes" or "no" to a plan where by Messrs. Hamm and Ramsey would conduct a tabernacle meeting on a tent meeting in the Twin Cities within 30 days. It appeared the most of the ministers favored a union meeting from their speeches and when Dr. Harris put the question the vote was almost unanimous for the union evangelistic effort.

The committee recently appointed to make arrangements for the midsummer picnic for the pastors and their families reported that the picnic would be held at Seneca Springs on Friday, June 29.

It was reported by F. A. Bloodworth, treasurer of the Bob Jones campaign organization, that the sum of $30 was in his bank left there by management of the Bob Jones meeting of some two years ago with request to be informed as to what disposition to make of the money.

The pastors voted unanimously that the money should be donated to the Benevolent Hospital fund of $5,000, now being raised.

Belts and Buckles

Like needles and pins, do not seem important. Yet, some are right and some are wrong. And no one wants the wrong kind. Every belt we show has passed the test. For quality. For durability. Their job is to hold 'em up. Ours is to hold 'em down.
